The Bible is full of stories and characters who have played a major role in shaping our culture. Whether you are particularly religious or not, there is no denying the impact these works have had on people around the world for hundreds of years. Because of the influence of the Bible, her style was often mimicked and themes, and more were borrowed from this century. It was the inspiration for hundreds of years of the greatest artwork of the Western world. His moral lessons, images and more can be found in many things old and new. The Bible was written by a large number of people over time. It has also been translated countless times, as these translations are often translated over and over again. This makes her style interesting, but generally incredibly unsound. In many cases, even fragments of the Bible contradict themselves. If you are an expert on the Bible who thinks you can choose the right verses from fakes, and you can't get used to passages from other works, put your biblical knowledge to the test with this biblical quiz. Copyright © 2020 InfoSpace Holdings, LLC, a System1 Company krisanapong detraphiphat/Getty Images From Mary to Sarah, is not missing the amazing women in the Bible who have made their mark on the Christian world. Inspire and motivate these 15 powerful women in the Bible who have shown courage, trust, patience and unwavering faith. 1 of the 15 Mary of Nazareth Mary's all-important role in the Bible is meaningless: Mother of Jesus, she gave birth to the savior of the world when she was only a teenager, as the angel Gabriel said she would. 2 of Ruth Moabite's 15 was an example of unwavering religious courage in the Bible. After being a widow early in life, she got stuck with her mother-in-law and followed God all her days because she believed he would provide for her. 3 of Magdalene's 15 Mary Magdalene was an unshuvate biblical figure, but she was certainly a faithful follower of Jesus. After he healed her, she traveled with Him and witnessed his crucifixion, burial and resurrection. Four of the 15 Rachel waited patiently to marry her love Jacob after her father cruelly cheated on her, who tricked Jacob into marrying her sister Leo. Her prayers were turned off and although she was initially childless, she became a mother to Joseph and Benjamin. Five of Hannah's 15 hannah prayed desperately for her son and promised to dedicate his life to God. When God came through, she kept her word: She left her son to rise in the temple (providing your son's wisdom along the way). Hannah's loyalty never erued. Six of the 15 eve while Eve is not the most upstanding woman in the Bible, she is certainly one of the most influential. By putting into evil, it reminds the world that while God is good, there are no temptations of Satan. 7 out of 15 Deborah As the only judge mentioned in the Bible, Deborah is known for being a compassionate leader (whose biblical times were not much). Eight of the 15 Ester Queen Esther showed great courage when she told the Persian king about the plan to assassinate him, and later a plan to kill all Jews in Persia. With the power of prayer and courage, she saved her people. 9 out of 15 Miriam Prophecy Miriam was Moses' older sister, and she helped save him as a child. And their mother left him in a basket so the pharaoh wouldn't kill him, and when the pharaoh's daughter found him and took pity on him, Miriam offered his mother hers to breastfeed him so they could stay together. Sarah Abraham's 15 wife Sarah is an example of how God keeps his promises: After telling Abraham that she would give birth to a son, despite being rude, Sara gave birth to Isaac at the age of 90. 11 of Elizabeth II's 15, Like Sarah, Elizabeth was too old to conceive a child - but God made it possible. She went to give birth to John the Baptist, who told the world about his upcoming savior Jesus Christ. 12 of Priscilla Priscilla's 15 is an example of God's wife in the Bible: During his marriage to Aquila, the couple was known for their strong ministry and generosity to those in need. 13 of Mary Bethany's 15 sisters Martha and Lazarus. Mary has always put Jesus first. While she hosted him at home with Martha, he communed her because she chose better by sitting at his feet instead of being swung by house work and fun tasks. 14 of the 15 Martha While Jesus persecuted Mary's sister Martha for putting her hosting duties above learning the word of Jesus, she was still a devoted follower who wanted to make Jesus comfortable and waiting. 15 of Jehosheba Jehosheba's 15, the daughter of King Joram, is known for bravely saving her nephew, Prince Joash, from the Queen Mother massacre. Prince Joash's survival has kept David's line, thanks to Jehoh. Continue with the latest daily buzzing with buzzfeed daily newsletter! Newsletter!
